

SAT SUPPORT WITH HOMEWORK HELP

WHAT IS IT?

Get help with your SAT questions from state-certified teachers with your public library's online service of Homework Help and access to Barron's SAT Prep books.

WHO IS IT FOR?

Any student wanting to better prepare for the SAT

WHEN IS IT?

Monday–Thursday 3pm–9pm

Saturday 9am–3pm

WHERE IS IT?

Online! Access from the library or at home. All you need is an internet connection and a library card.

HOW TO ACCESS IT FROM HOME

1 Go to literati.credoreference.com.

2 If you are brought to a login screen, select the name of your library.

The screenshot shows the Literati login interface. At the top, there are logos for Credo and Literati. Below the header, a section titled "Are you a member of one of these libraries?" lists several Attington County Library branches. Underneath, there are "Other Login Options" including "Search for your library", "Find your library by location", "Enter your library card information", and "Enter your username & password".

3 Once on the Literati homepage—click the black “Homework Help” button on the right side.

The screenshot shows the Literati homepage. On the right side, there is a vertical black button labeled "Homework Help". The main content area features a search bar and a section for "Get Live Homework Help in Math & Science!" with a form to find a teacher.

OR Choose from “Other Login Options” like “Enter your library card information.”

The screenshot shows the Literati login interface with the "Library Card Login" section selected. It prompts the user to enter their library card number, student ID number, or password. There is a "Go" button and a link to "Other Login Options".

4 Enter your name, grade and subject—then connect to your live teacher.

The screenshot shows the "Homework Help" form. It has a title "Homework Help" and a subtitle "Find a teacher to help you with your homework now." Below this are fields for "First Name:" and "Grade Level:" with a dropdown menu. At the bottom is a button labeled "Find Me a Teacher".